

Homestead Conference

Coeur d'Alene, Idaho

June 28-29, 2024

Travel Dates: Thursday, June 27th and Sunday, June 30th

County Extension Agent- Family, Community Health seeks the Commissioners Court approval to attend the Homestead Conference in Coeur d'Alene, Idaho. This conference is taught by top industry leaders and offers an unparalleled opportunity to deepen her expertise and bring valuable knowledge back to Brazoria County residents. As an agent in Brazoria County, _____, teaches a 7-month course in food preservation. Every one of her 7 classes sell out and we have a waiting list for most of the classes. While she knows a wealth of information, _____ feels it is very important always to stay on top of the latest research and techniques for food preservation. Mastering the subjects of pressure canning, fermentation, cheese making, extracting oils from seeds makes an economic impact on everyone who learns at her classes. By investing in this learning experience, we will be improving the lives of families and generations to come. _____, is teaching residents of Brazoria County to become food secure and making a difference in our community. No other conference exists in the State of Texas.

Conference is being paid for by current travel budget of the 2023-2024 fiscal year. No additional monies are being requested.

Conference has been approved by the Texas A&M AgriLife District 9 Director and the AgriLife Administrators. Please see attached documentation.
